Which Blue is Right for You?

Who doesn't love blue? Wispy, soothing tones of pastel blues are perfect for creating the coastal breeziness that's a perennial favourite.

Yet we're also getting bolder in our use of blues, with deep dramatic midnight hues like Resene Indian Ink and vivid primary blues like Resene Wet N Wild that give us all an immediate mood lift.

There are few colours that are so universally loved than blue in all its iterations. Get the colour combinations right and blues can really make your rooms soar with timeless style.

High-gloss paints are a sure-fire way to make a bold statement with a high sheen finish like Resene Enamacryl. Pair with beige and cream to lighten the mood.

If you want your walls to recede, why not try a deeper blue like Resene Coast in the matte finish of Resene SpaceCote Flat. Choose a lighter shade of blue if you are lacking in natural sunlight.

- Combinations to try in your home:
- Pale blue and white such as Resene Dusted Blue and Resene Sea Fog for a classic Cape Cod look, or for a crisp, clean kitchen.
  - Relaxed blue-greens such as Resene Escape used with palest sand tones for a bachy, seaside feel.
  - Retro teals such as Resene Blumine with other zingy brights against a background of cleanest white or deepest black. Unapologetic and fun.
  - Deep blue such as Resene Indian Ink for a rich and sophisticated living room, teamed with soft metallic golds or pewter, or even pops of pink and yellow.
  - Pretty vintage blues, like Resene Time Out, tied with antique white and pretty sorbet shades.
