You will need:

- Paintbrushes
- Primed artists' canvas board
- Resene Crackle effect
- Resene testpots of Resene Bright Red, Resene Manz, Resene Nero, Resene Trinidad and Resene Wham

Step one

Apply one coat of Resene Nero to the primed canvas board and allow two hours to dry.

Step two

Apply one coat of Resene Crackle effect to the painted board and allow to dry.

Step three

Paint the head and neck of the man with Resene Manz, the teeth with Resene Trinidad and the eyes with Resene Wham, making sure you only apply one coat.

Step four

Paint the background with one coat of Resene Bright Red. Allow your painting two hours to dry before hanging. That's crackle-tastic!

It's easy to create this funky portrait using Resene Crackle effect and a selection of fabulous Resene colours.

Top tip:

If you don't have a canvas board simply use a piece of heavy cardboard and prime it first with one coat of Resene Quick Dry.

Here's another idea:

This pink monster was painted with Resene Bombshell, Resene Get Reddy, and Resene Tutti Frutti over basecoats of Resene All Black and Resene Crackle effect.
