Resene ROCKCOTE

Resitex elastomeric textured coating

exterior/interior

---

Net contents: 4 litres

---

WARNING

This product, like all products, contains chemical components that are harmful if swallowed or inhaled. This product is not recommended for use by children or persons with respiratory or skin problems. Keep out of reach of children.

---

Resitex ROCKCOTE is a tough elastomeric and can be used for both exterior and interior cementitious surfaces that are exposed to daily wear and tear. It is suitable for rough substrates and can be used over old building materials.

Resitex Anchor Coat is used as the basecoat for all finishes. It is available in four grades: Coarse, Standard, Medium and Fine. Resitex Standard is the most common grade and is suitable for most applications. Resitex Coarse is the most rugged and is suitable for rough substrates or old building materials.

Resitex Basecoat is a tough elastomeric and can be used for both exterior and interior cementitious surfaces that are exposed to daily wear and tear. It is available in four grades: Coarse, Standard, Medium and Fine. Resitex Coarse is the most rugged and is suitable for rough substrates or old building materials.

Resitex Topcoats are available in five finishes: Satin, Matte, Whites, Neutrals and The Range. Resitex Satin is the most common finish and is suitable for most applications. Resitex Matte is a flat finish and is suitable for use in high-traffic areas.

---

Application method

Resene Resitex Plastercote: Spray application

Resene Resitex: Spray and/or PAL Hi-Solid roller.

Resitex is to be used as the basecoat for all finishes. Resitex Coarse is the most rugged and is suitable for rough substrates or old building materials. Resitex Standard is the most common grade and is suitable for most applications.

---

Use on: Exterior and interior cementitious surfaces. Resene Resitex Plastercote may also be used over old building materials. Resene Resitex is suitable for use in high-traffic areas.

---

Clean up: Remove any paint or products as soon as possible. Before washing brushes and rollers, scrape off the excess paint and then wash with soap and warm water. The use of hot water will not harm the product.

---

Quick check