Resene Summit Roof Semi-Gloss exterior waterborne roof paint

Resene Summit Roof is a unique waterborne semi-gloss exterior waterborne roof paint designed to be used as a system for optimal results. Substitution of the Resene CoolColour system for this product is not advised. Resene Summit Roof is a unique waterborne semi-gloss exterior waterborne roof paint.

Coverage

The spreading rate recommended for this product will achieve high hiding. See the Resene website for more information.

Use on

- Trims, edges and skirtings
- Wooden window frames
- Soffits and fascias
- External metalwork
- Exterior brickwork
- Concrete in damp conditions.
- Masonry

Thinning:

In hot conditions may be thinned with up to 5% Resene Hot Weather Additive to slow drying. Spraying - use a FFLP 516 tip at 1800 psi with the addition of 2% Resene Summit Roof Spray Additive and a 60 mesh filter. Spraying at a rate of greater than 2 litres per minute, such as a Graco 395, using a Commercial version), use a unit capable of achieving a flow rate of greater than 2 litres per minute. Use a 3 nozzle, such as a Graco 25F (see P21) to 1800 psi for the addition of 2% Resene Summit Roof Spray Additive to water. When people project a single atomization from top to bottom over dry surfaces of an unpainted roof exceeds six months or when there is white growth or any type of fungus, lichen or algae.