This document is about Resene Uracryl 404 urethane acrylic low sheen base. It provides information on how to use this product, including safety precautions, handling, and application details. It also includes instructions on how to dispose of the product correctly to minimize environmental impact. For more detailed information, users are encouraged to consult the Resene Data Sheet and Safety Data Sheet available from Resene ColorShops or the Resene website.